

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

You agree to:

- complete the work experience placement of twelve weeks. If you are unable to complete the full twelve weeks you agree to forfeit any further payments.
- carry out duties assigned by Sunraysia Daily.
- keep confidential any information obtained during the course of the scholarship.
- fund your own travel and accommodation costs
- provide a short bio and answer a short questionnaire about yourself which will be shared with the team at Sunraysia Daily before you take up your position.
- on completion of the scholarship, complete a short feedback form on your experience which will aid the Foundation in its assessment of the scholarship program.
- provide a testimony (written or filmed) outlining your experience and how it developed your understanding of journalism. This testimony will be shared with the funders (William Buckland Foundation) and may be used in the marketing and promotion of the scholarship program.

The Walkley Foundation will:

- Pay the successful applicant a stipend of $833.33 per week for the 12-week period. This will be paid on a fortnightly basis by the Foundation.
- Ensure that the scholarship recipient is covered by the Foundation's workers comprehensive insurance policy.

Scholarship termination:

- If the placement is not working for any reason, you must notify the Walkley Foundation immediately to ensure that the matter is addressed or, if necessary the placement is terminated.

Please note that:

- Shortlisted applicants must be available to be interviewed (either in person or video conference) by the Mildura based judging panel on or around October 2, 2020.
- The applicant must be available to undertake the 12-week fellowship in Mildura in 2021. Dates to be confirmed, but placement start date will be no earlier than March 2021.
